Gospel Reflection

The readings today make it clear that we have a choice to make: follow the ways of God or follow the ways of the world. Following God, generally, fills us with feelings of peace: our sense of hope expands, our hearts become wider and deeper. Following the world often leads to feelings of inadequacy, insecurity, fearfulness, desperation, competition for attention.

Il Vangelo di Domenica

Le letture di oggi rendono chiaro che abbiamo la possibilità di scegliere: seguire le vie di Dio o seguire le vie del mondo. Seguire Dio, in generale, ci riempie di sentimenti di pace: il nostro senso di speranza si espande, i nostri cuori diventano più ampi e profondi. Seguire il mondo spesso porta sentimenti di inadeguatezza, insicurezza, paura, disperazione, competizione per l'attenzione.

Summer Camp Highlights

We would like to extend our gratitude to everyone who participated in this year's 2023 summer camp. The camp was a resounding success. A heartfelt thank you to Angie Olivieri, who admirably led as the camp's main coordinator. Our gratitude also goes to the managers, council members, and volunteers, for their commitment to the St. Fidelis Summer Camp. To the campers and their parents, a big thank you. We hope you had a wonderful time. Until next year – looking forward to seeing you again!

IT'S TIME FOR BACK TO SCHOOL!

It is the beginning of another school year. We wish the principals, staff, parents and children of St. Fidelis Catholic School and St. Francis Xavier Catholic School a safe and blessed school year. God bless all of you!

A warm welcome to Mr. Paolo Fietta, the new principal of St. Fidelis School. We look forward to the positive impact your leadership will bring to our school and parish community.

May God bless Mr. Fietta with wisdom and guidance as he leads St. Fidelis School in nurturing hearts and minds.

Dear God,

As school resumes, we pray for our children, teachers, and staff. Bless the children with enthusiasm for learning, the teachers with wisdom to guide, and the support staff with patience in their roles. Keep them safe, inspired, and united in purpose throughout the school year. Amen.
