Gospel Reflection

The Fourth Sunday of Easter could be called Good Shepherd Sunday. The first part of today's gospel presents Jesus as the One whose voice is recognized by his sheep. The second part of the chapter presents Jesus as the shepherd who searches for his lost sheep. In a world where so many people are looking for a voice to lead them, there is only one voice that matters. World leaders and politicians for that matter attract people fanatically dedicated to them, but at best their voices lead only to limited solutions to the complex problems of life. The voice that matters is the Voice of the Lord. There are many voices in the world. We have to listen carefully for the voices that are coming from the Lord and distinguish them from those that are not the voice of our shepherd.

Il Vangelo di Domenica

La quarta domenica di Pasqua può essere chiamata Domenica del Buon Pastore. La prima parte del Vangelo di oggi presenta Gesù come Lui con la voce che le sue pecore conoscono. La seconda parte del capitolo presenta Gesù come il pastore che cerca le sue pecore smarrite. In un mondo in cui molte persone cercano una voce che le guidi, c'è solo una voce che conta. I politici, nella migliore delle ipotesi, attraggono persone fanaticamente dedicate a loro, ma le loro voci portano solo a soluzioni limitate per i problemi complessi della vita. La voce che conta è la Voce del Signore. Ci sono molte voci nel mondo. Dobbiamo ascoltare attentamente le voci che vengono dal Signore e distinguere quelle che non sono la voce del nostro pastore.

Thank You!

On behalf of our parish community, we would like to express our sincere appreciation and gratitude to all the volunteers who worked tirelessly to make our recent celebration of the feast of St. Fidelis a resounding success. Your hard work, dedication, and commitment to our parish community are greatly appreciated. We extend a special thanks to those who generously donated their time and effort to bake cookies and bring them over for the feast. Your delicious treats were enjoyed by all and added a special touch to the event. We would also like to thank all the parishioners who attended the celebration and participated in the coffee hour. Your presence and support made the event a memorable and enjoyable experience for all. As a community, we came together to honor the life and legacy of St. Fidelis, who lived a life of faith, service, and selflessness. We were reminded of the importance of following in his footsteps and sharing God's love with those around us.
