GOSPEL REFLECTION

“My sheep hear my voice.” – John 10:27

In this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus reminds us that He is the Good Shepherd who knows His sheep intimately. His voice is not harsh or distant, but familiar and filled with love. When we listen to His voice in prayer, Scripture, and the Church, we are drawn deeper into His care. No one can snatch us from His hand—what a powerful promise of protection and belonging! Let us take comfort this week in knowing that we are never alone. We are His, and He will never let us go.

RIFLESSIONE SUL VANGELO

Nel Vangelo di questa domenica, Gesù ci ricorda che Lui è il Buon Pastore che conosce profondamente le sue pecore. La sua voce non è distante né severa, ma familiare e piena di amore. Quando ascoltiamo la sua voce nella preghiera, nella Parola e nella vita della Chiesa, entriamo sempre più nella sua cura. Nessuno può strapparci dalla sua mano: è una promessa potente di protezione e appartenenza. In questa settimana, troviamo conforto nel sapere che non siamo mai soli. Siamo suoi, e Lui non ci abbandonerà mai.

HABEMUS PAPAM! POPE LEO XIV NAMED 267TH

SUCCESSOR OF PETER

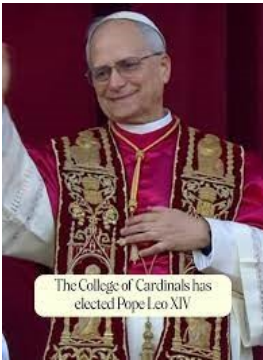

Cardinal Robert Francis Prevost, O.S.A., has been elected the 267th Pope, taking the name
Pope Leo XIV. Born in 1955 in Chicago, Illinois, he is the first US-born Pope in history.

A former missionary in Peru and provincial prior of the Augustinian Province in Chicago, Pope Leo XIV stepped onto the balcony of St. Peter's Basilica to greet the faithful with a message of peace, unity, and hope. “God loves everyone. Evil will not prevail. We are in the hands of God,” he said in Italian, continuing, “So without fear, united, hand in hand with God, we go forward.”

He thanked Pope Francis for his service and called on all people to build bridges through dialogue and peace. Quoting St. Augustine, he said:

“For you I am a bishop; but with you I am a Christian.”

He concluded by leading the faithful in Ave Maria and offering his blessing to the world..

The College of Cardinals has elected Pope Leo XIV

SHARING THE JOY OF OUR FIRST HOLY COMMUNION

Saturday was a special day for our parish as we celebrated the First Holy Communion of our young candidates. We congratulate each and every one of them on this significant milestone in their spiritual journey.

We pray that our First Holy Communion candidates will continue to grow in their faith and become strong witnesses of Christ's love. We also extend heartfelt congratulations to the parents of our First Holy Communion candidates. Your dedication and commitment to raising your children in the faith have borne fruit, and we share in your happiness on this special day.
 We would also like to thank our dedicated catechists who have played a vital role in preparing our First Holy Communion candidates. Your patience, guidance, and support have been instrumental in nurturing their faith and helping them to understand the significance of this sacrament. Thank you to everyone who helped make this celebration a success.

Mother's Day is a perfect moment to thank our mothers for giving us life. A mother, like no one else, has the power to open our minds and hearts to the reality that not only is life good, but your life and my life, by name, is very good and has infinite value and God-like dignity. As St. John Paul II so beautifully pointed out, part of the genius of a woman is the indispensable role she plays in showing all of humanity the tremendous value of every human person. Our mothers have this role in a preeminent way. They give us life. But a mother's role doesn't stop there. We know they are meant to feed us, to love us, to raise us, to pass on the faith and lead us to Jesus, to teach us by their actions and words that we are so important that God died to save us and make us his friend. How desperately our world needs mothers and their witness to human life. What a task! What an amazing person a mother is! Take a moment today; thank and love your mother. Thank you to all the mothers of the parish who are, to their children the most beautiful women in the world. May God bless the mothers of our parish today and always.

La Festa della Mamma è un'occasione per ringraziare le nostre madri per il dono della vita. Oltre a dare la vita, le madri ci nutrono, ci amano e ci guidano, trasmettendo la fede e l'importanza di ogni individuo. La loro testimonianza sulla vita umana è preziosa per il mondo. Grazie a tutte le madri della parrocchia per il loro amore e dedizione.
