Gospel Reflection

In the Gospel of Mark, every time Jesus performs a miracle, he instructs the person "to say nothing." This is known as the "messianic secret".

Jesus did not want anyone to believe in the Messiah until they could fully understand the scope of his mission. Miracles and healings were not enough! Mark's Jesus will reveal himself as the Messiah by being powerless on the cross. Today's reading offers three significant messages:
 • Jesus does not stay in a village after showing miraculous powers because he knows that these signs are the only reason people follow him. • He continues to preach everywhere hoping that his followers will accept his way of suffering along with his miraculous works. • Jesus doesn't want to be an idealized miracle worker!

Il Vangelo di Domenica

Nel Vangelo di Marco, ogni volta che Gesù compie un miracolo, istruisce la persona "a non dire nulla". Questo è conosciuto come il "segreto messianico". Gesù non voleva che nessuno credesse nel Messia fino a quando non potesse comprendere pienamente la portata della sua missione. I miracoli e le guarigioni non erano sufficienti! Il Gesù di Marco si rivelerà come il Messia essendo impotente sulla croce. La lettura di oggi offre tre messaggi significativi:
 • Gesù non rimane in un villaggio dopo aver mostrato poteri miracolosi perché sa che questi segni sono l'unico motivo per cui le persone lo seguono. • Continua a predicare ovunque sperando che i suoi seguaci accettino il suo modo di soffrire insieme alle sue opere miracolose. • Gesù non vuole essere un operaio di miracoli idealizzato!
