Gospel Reflection

The Gospel of this Fifth Sunday of Lent tells us of the resurrection of Lazarus (cf. Jn 11:53).

Before the sealed tomb of his friend Lazarus, Jesus "cried with a loud voice: 'Lazarus, come out!'. And the dead man came out, his hands and feet bound with bandages, and his face wrapped with a cloth". He calls us to come out of the darkness of that prison in which we are enclosed, content with a false, selfish and mediocre life. "Come out!", he says to us, "Come out!". It is an invitation to true freedom, to allow ourselves to be seized by these words of Jesus who repeats them to each one of us today.

It is an invitation to let ourselves be freed from the "bandages", from the bandages of pride.

Il Vangelo di Domenica

Il Vangelo di questa quinta domenica di Quaresima ci racconta la risurrezione di Lazzaro. Dinanzi alla tomba sigillata dell'amico Lazzaro, Gesù «gridò a gran voce: "Lazzaro, vieni fuori!". E il morto uscì, i piedi e le mani legati con bende, e il viso avvolto da un sudario» (vv. 43-44). Ci chiama insistentemente ad uscire dal buio della prigione in cui ci siamo rinchiusi, accontentandoci di una vita falsa, egoistica, mediocre. «Vieni fuori!», ci dice, «Vieni fuori!». E' un bell'invito alla vera libertà, a lasciarci afferrare da queste parole di Gesù che oggi ripete a ciascuno di noi. Un invito a lasciarci liberare dalle "bende", dalle bende dell'orgoglio.

This is a momentous occasion for our diocese and we extend our warmest congratulations to Bishop Leo.

Please join us in praying for Archbishop Leo as he embarks on this new journey. May God bless him and guide him in all his endeavors.

THANK YOU CARDINAL THOMAS COLLINS

As we welcome our new Archbishop Frank Leo, we also want to take a moment to acknowledge and thank our outgoing Archbishop,

Cardinal Thomas Collins. For many years,

Cardinal Collins has been a faithful servant of the Archdiocese of Toronto, and we are grateful for his dedicated service to our community.

Under his leadership, our diocese has grown and flourished. His commitment to the Church and to his flock has been an inspiration to us all, and we are honored to have had him as our Archbishop for so many years.

Thank you, Cardinal Collins, for your years of dedicated service to our parish and to the Archdiocese of Toronto.

You will always hold a special place in our hearts.

Chrism Mass

This year's Chrism Mass will take place on Tuesday, 4 April 2023 at St. Michael's Cathedral Basilica.

Chrism Mass is a special liturgy celebrated during Holy Week, usually on Holy Thursday. During this Mass, the bishop blesses the oils that will be used in the administration of the sacraments throughout the year.

There are three types of holy oils that are blessed during the Chrism Mass:

Oil of the Catechumens, Oil of the Sick, Sacred Chrism. During the Chrism Mass, the priests of the diocese also renew their vows of service to God and the Church, and the bishop blesses the assembly with the sacred chrism.
