Gospel Reflection

In John 14:15-21, Jesus reveals a profound truth: we are not orphans but children of a loving Father in heaven. This assurance should bring comfort and strength to our hearts. In a world often marked by loneliness and despair, we can find solace in knowing that God never abandons us. His love and presence are constant, guiding us through life's challenges. We are cherished, protected, and embraced by our heavenly Father.

Il Vangelo di Domenica

In Giovanni 14:15-21, Gesù rivela una verità profonda: non siamo orfani, ma figli di un Padre amorevole nel cielo. Questa certezza dovrebbe portare conforto e forza nei nostri cuori. In un mondo spesso segnato dalla solitudine e dallo sconforto, possiamo trovare sollievo sapendo che Dio non ci abbandona mai. Il Suo amore e la Sua presenza sono costanti, guidandoci attraverso le sfide della vita. Siamo cari, protetti e abbracciati dal nostro Padre celeste.

O Vergine Immacolata

O Vergine Immacolata, Regina del cielo e della terra, io so di non essere degno di avvicinarmi a te.

Ma poiché ti amo tanto, oso supplicarti di essere così buona da volermi dire chi sei.

Desidero conoscerti sempre di più, sconfinatamente di più, e amarti in modo sempre più ardente, con un ardore senza limiti.

Desidero rivelare a tutti chi sei tu, affinché un numero sempre maggiore di anime ti conosca sempre più perfettamente, ti ami sempre più ardentemente.

E tu divenga così la Regina di tutti i cuori che battono e batteranno sulla terra. E ciò quanto prima, il più presto possibile. Quando, o Signora, regnerai sovrana in tutti i cuori e in ciascuno singolarmente?

Venga presto, o Maria, il giorno in cui ogni uomo riconosca te come Madre e Dio come Padre e tutti finalmente si sentano fratelli. Amen.
