Gospel Reflection (Mt 4:1-11)
The Gospel today takes us into the desert with Jesus, where He faces temptation. After fasting for forty days, He is hungry and weak, yet He does not give in to the devil's offers of comfort, power, or self-glory. Instead, He remains firm, trusting completely in God. Lent is our time in the desert—a time to confront our weaknesses, detach from what distracts us, and renew our trust in God. Like Jesus, we are tempted daily—tempted to seek easy solutions, to put ourselves first, to take shortcuts in faith. But Jesus shows us the way: through prayer, fasting, and relying on God's Word, we can overcome temptation and grow stronger in faith. As we begin this Lenten journey, may we walk with Jesus in the desert, allowing Him to strengthen us, purify our hearts, and lead us closer to the Father.

Riflessione sul Vangelo (Mt 4:1-11)
Il Vangelo di oggi ci porta nel deserto con Gesù, dove affronta la tentazione. Dopo quaranta giorni di digiuno, è debole e affamato, ma non cede alle proposte del diavolo: non cerca il proprio benessere, non cerca potere, non cerca gloria. Resta fedele, confidando solo in Dio. La Quaresima è il nostro tempo nel deserto—un tempo per affrontare le nostre debolezze, liberarci da ciò che ci allontana da Dio e rinnovare la nostra fiducia in Lui. Come Gesù, anche noi siamo tentati ogni giorno: tentati di cercare vie facili, di pensare solo a noi stessi, di mettere Dio in secondo piano. Ma Gesù ci indica la strada: con la preghiera, il digiuno e la Parola di Dio, possiamo vincere la tentazione e rafforzare la nostra fede. In questo cammino quaresimale, lasciamoci guidare da Gesù. Che Lui ci renda più forti, purifichi il nostro cuore e ci conduca sempre più vicini al Padre.
