GOSPEL REFLECTION

Should a man nourish anger against his fellows and expect healing from the Lord? Should a man refuse mercy to his fellows, yet seek pardon for his own sins? These verses are taken from today's first reading from the Book of Sirach. The message of these verses is brought to life by Jesus in the Gospel reading of the parable of the Unmerciful Servant. This is how we all live. We live under the mercy of God. He has been so good to all of us. When we consider what we have received, the call to be merciful to others is a tiny reflection of God's great gift to us. Living under His mercy, we must bring his mercy and compassion to others.

Dovrebbe un uomo nutrire rancore verso i suoi simili e attendersi guarigione dal Signore? Dovrebbe un uomo rifiutare la misericordia verso i suoi simili eppure cercare perdono per i suoi peccati? Questi versetti sono tratti dalla prima lettura odierna dal Libro del Siracide. Il messaggio di questi versetti è reso vivo da Gesù nella lettura del Vangelo della parabola del Servo Spietato. È così che tutti noi viviamo. Viviamo sotto la misericordia di Dio. Egli è stato così buono con tutti noi. Quando consideriamo ciò che abbiamo ricevuto, il richiamo ad essere misericordiosi verso gli altri è un piccolo riflesso del grande dono di Dio a noi. Vivendo sotto la Sua misericordia, dobbiamo portare la Sua misericordia e compassione agli altri.

SEPTEMBER 14TH FEAST OF THE EXALTATION OF THE HOLY CROSS

Let’s Pray: Heavenly Father, On this special day of the Exaltation of the Cross, we humbly gather to honor the symbol of Your immense love and sacrifice. May the cross be a constant reminder of Your presence in our lives, guiding us through both trials and triumphs. As we venerate the Cross of Christ, grant us the strength to bear our own challenges with faith and resilience. May we learn from His example of selflessness and find growth in adversity. Amen.

NOVENA TO ST. MICHAEL, THE PATRON OF THE ARCHDIOCESE OF TORONTO

Archbishop Leo extends an invitation to the Catholic community across the archdiocese to participate in a novena dedicated to Saint Michael the Archangel, leading up to the Solemnity of Saint Michael on September 27th. Everyone is encouraged to commence the novena on Friday, September 18 th, and conclude it on Sunday, September 27th.

NOVENA TO ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Heavenly and Almighty Father, God of mercy and compassion, we give you thanks and praise for all your kindness and blessings which you bestow upon us, your beloved children, and for the opportunities of spiritual renewal which you provide out of the abundance of your unfailing love and graciousness.

As we honour the glorious Archangel St. Michael, whose zeal for your almighty power obtains for us your own loving protection, in the name of Christ our Saviour and Brother and through your Holy Spirit, guide our steps along the path of holiness of life, and guard our thoughts as we journey through this life to our heavenly homeland. Confident of the powerful intercession of our patron saint St. Michael, we now ask for this grace (say your intention).

Inspire in us the same humility and thirst for justice and holiness which animated your great servant and angelic messenger. May our lives give glory to you, our families bear witness to your love and our communities of faith be filled with the grace and joys of your Kingdom. Amen.

Our Father... Hail Mary... Glory Be...

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle.....
